ONE HUNDRED TICKETS are already purchased at an immediate expence of £.1400, and are lodged at an eminent Banker's for the security of the holders of the Five Shilling Policies.

In the last Lottery they paid, on a similar plan, a large number of Tickets to many fortunate persons, whose names we think it unnecessary to mention, but their several receipts may be seen at No. 26, Cornhill, one of which was No. 2813, drawn a Prize of £.20,000.

Hornsbys and Co. Sold and Shared the £.10,000, in Cox's Museum Lottery; £.20,000, in 1774; £.5,000, in 1776; £.10,000, in 1777; besides several Prizes of £.2000, £.1000, and £.500.
